Project Results

PR4 – Guidelines and Recommendations on validation processes

The Guidelines represent an opportunity for the development of both policy and adult education and engagement programmes, practices and interventions. The result will gather all the project activities results and achievements and will inspire the design of a clear, concise, complete and easy to read policy recommendation document.

Objectives

- ✓ To formulate the findings of the project in a format of policy recommendations.
- ✓ To provide conclusions and a set of recommendations to improve the understanding and implementation of the procedures involved in certification of non-formal learning and competences.
- ✓ To foster the creation of a repository of information among a network of professional working on adult education and concerned by validation of competences of their target groups.
- ✓ To provide a model for policies and education programmes in regard to competence recognition and certification, to be shared and replicated across international contexts and to be endorsed by private and public stakeholders.

A group of five penguins from the movie 'Madagascar' are shown in a close-up, looking serious and conspiratorial. They are gathered around a central point, with their heads tilted upwards. The background is a plain, light-colored wall with several small, circular lights. The penguins have black heads and backs, white chests, and large orange beaks. Their eyes are wide and focused, giving them a determined and somewhat mischievous appearance.

OK! WE HAVE THE PLAN!!

LET'S DO THIS!
